

PRIVACY POLICY

Personal information provided to Bakalar Flying Club, Inc. (BFC) by a member during their membership application process, and as amended or compiled over time, as well as personal information contained in membership documentation on file is confidential and is used only for the operational needs of the club.

1. Personal information provided by a member may be shared, copied or distributed to governmental or regulatory agencies, our insurance provider, or other third parties to fulfill requirements related to operational, compliance, legal or any other lawful purposes as may be required by law or service provided.
2. Limited information provided by a member (e.g. name, phone number, email address) may be shared with other club members to promote club fellowship.
3. A member's name and/or photograph may be used on BFC's social media and/or websites or be included in promotional materials created by BFC for the purpose of promoting the Club.

All personal information may be stored manually or electronically, and will not be shared, rented, leased, or distributed to any third party, except as noted above, without the member's consent.

By joining BFC, a member acknowledges that they are aware of this policy and gives consent for the use of their information as described above.
